2012 - year of transformation and change

Hi Friends,

The year of 2012 can be marked as a year of transformation and change. The year encourages us to gather our abilities and strength to speak our mind and free ourselves of fear, regardless of the future consequences.

2012 benefits students by drinking mental awareness along with intellect and wit. Increasing communication, productivity and expansion will allow business houses to flourish. People will connect with each other and as a result there will be greater exchange of ideas. The media and art folk will continue to harness their creativity and innovation in their skills and work. Writers, poets, singers, mock-journalists, artists, magicians, marketing and advertisement people will witness a favorable period. Professions such as information technology, lawyers, tourism, and telecommunications will be beneficiaries in 2012. 2012 will witness an increased usage of the mobile, computer and other electronics. Silver will be a commodity to watch out for. Working professional need to connect to their higher intellect to enhance their efficiency and remain competitive. Travel and tourism will benefit as a result of increased work/leisure trips. Be wary of tricksters and con men: they can exploit your weakness. Don't fall prey to easy money or get rich quick schemes. Overall people will exercise greater portions of their mind – greater reasoning and logic, higher intellect and sharper communication. 2012 will be marked as a year of zeal, vitality, cheer, excitement, entertainment, enjoyment, travel, communication and creativity at its best. This year will be good for the Gemini and Virgo zodiac signs as well as for people whose name starts with E, H, N, O, W, and X.

As started earlier, 2012 is a year of transformation and change. 2012 as a number corresponds to the planet of Mercury; the messenger of the Gods. The planet, Mercury stands for communication, mind and intellect. The planet, Mercury is characterized by absorbing enormous information, synthesizing it and forming a cobweb of connections. Mercury also signifies a leap of intuition and is connected to literature, transport, commerce, trade, publishing, media and telecommunications. Mercury is connected with the element of water that stands for emotions and feelings. The feelings relate to the subconscious that in turn speaks about trusting your intuition. In the tarot rider wait deck, the year of 2012 that equates to 5, is represented by the tarot card - The Hierophant. The Hierophant epitomizes knowledge and education and expression of the spiritual soul. 2012 and the Hierophant marks a year where we dwell deeper or make fresh beginnings in spiritual quest. Reaching our true potential needs evolution from our blind beliefs, traditions and norms. Water is connected with emotions and feelings. The feelings come through the heart and the subconscious mind. The subconscious mind is connected to the intuition. Mercury is connected to the silvery white metal. In tarot, number 5 is represented by The Hierophant. The Hierophant represents for knowledge and education in its best accepted form. It also suggests your inner spiritual soul needs expression. We all are here for some spiritual purpose and meaning into life. We all need to know what are our beliefs, traditional values and norms to improve our life making necessary changes, and not getting stuck to blind beliefs, traditions and norms that does not forward us for our growth and highest potentials, being true to our own self. The Hierophant is about shared feelings, beliefs and ways and about blending in or surrendering to rather than asserting your uniqueness.

In Chinese astrology, 2012 represents the year of the Dragon. The Dragon is a symbol of strength and courage; one that speaks his mind. It possesses boundless sexual energy and is assertive, extroverted, physically healthy and has an unpredictable nature. It signifies logic, reason, ethics, travel, commerce, trade and utility, life, sexuality, freedom of movement and speech, adventure, thrill, adaptability, comprehension, discrimination and speculation. It is the number of material expression and manifestation. It is the number of life, grace and redemption.

Year 2012, represented by 5 has also several deeper connotations. Humans have 5 senses, 5 fingers and 5 toes. Buddha outlined five precepts of conduct: material fidelity, loyalty, filial love, obedience and sincerity. Ancients considered number 5 as a symbol of marriage and generations. There are 5 elements ruled by 5 planets.

So let's welcome 365 days of bright mornings and starlit evenings with a leap of faith in our Higher Self. Let's connect 52 weeks to our Super consciousness through which we draw Divine Guidance.
